Of this complanent we feel proud and make our politest bow both to the excursionists and to the Y. D. Band, the latter however is entitled to the lowest bow, for meriting such an encomium. These Iowa people also said that we had the shabbiest depot they had seen en route. Of this we are ashamed and hope that the company will build us a better one, which we feet justly entitled to. Let this relie of Ben Holladay pass into the shades of oblivion.

VISITOR .- Hon. S. J. Day ex-County Judge of Jackson county has been in Roseburg this week on business. He has been to Portland to purchase a set of books with which to transact his business in Jackson county. The set of books cost him $300 00. His many old time friends were glad to shake his hand as they used to do, when he "packed" through this valley in 1851. Most of these old pioneers have crossed the River however, but the few that linger on this side 1 ell remember the warwhoop and the sizz of the arrow. These were the "days that tried men's souls." The Judge says our town is one of the liveliest on the road if not the very liveliest. Judge Day has held many important offices of trust in Jackson county by the suff a res of his constituents, the last being that of County Judge which he held for eight consecutive years.
